QUESTION NO 8

By Councillor Orr for answer by the Convener of the Transport and Environment Committee at a meeting of the Council on 19 November 2015

Question

In 2012 the City of Edinburgh Council won the Fields in Trust Landowner of the Year Award, and in 2013 the city as a whole won a Gold Award in the large city category of Britain in Bloom, following that up in 2014 with a gold medal for “management of natural and built environment” at the Entente Florale (European) awards. In 2015 “Edinburgh In Bloom” won yet another award from Eurocities at a ceremony in Malmo. The credit for such awards must be shared with all sorts of stakeholders across the city but does the Convener agree that the council’s parks and greenspace team have performed exceptionally well in recent years.
