Planning Statutory Scheme of Delegation

Item number	8.2
Report number
Executive/routine
Wards	All
Council Commitments	10-15

Executive Summary

The statutory scheme of delegation on planning applications allows officers to make decisions on local developments. Changes were agreed by the Council on 23 August 2018 to allow more delegated powers in respect of householder development and representations in support of local developments. Other changes mean that objections from statutory consultees, such as community councils, would require a Planning Committee decision if the application is recommended for approval.

The proposed changes were sent to Scottish Ministers on 11 September 2018 and approved by them on 4 October 2018. They are now presented to full Council for formal adoption.

Planning Statutory Scheme of Delegation

1. Recommendations

- 1.1 That the Council agrees to adopt the amended Statutory Scheme of Delegation with immediate effect; and
- 1.2 That the Council agrees to make the scheme available for inspection in accordance with the regulations and forward the link to the published version to Scottish Ministers.

2. Background

- 2.1 In the main, delegated powers in respect of planning fall within the Council's overall scheme of delegation to officers set out in terms of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973. However, the Planning etc (Scotland) Act 2006 requires planning authorities to draw up a statutory scheme of delegation in respect of local developments. In planning terms, developments now fall within three categories – national developments, major developments and local developments. The statutory scheme in its current form was adopted by the Council, after the required referral to Scottish Ministers, on 22 August 2013.
- 2.2 At its meeting on 23 August 2018, the Council agreed to changes which allow officers to determine applications for approval with up to 20 objections on householder development and applications for refusal with up to 20 support comments on local development. Other changes included ensuring applications are determined by Planning Committee where there are unresolved objections from statutory consultees.
- 2.3 The amendments in respect of the Chief Planning Officer's delegated functions in respect of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 were approved by full Council on 27 June 2018.

3. Main report

- 3.1 Currently around 95% of planning applications are determined by officers, meaning that the Development Management Subcommittee can concentrate on the more complex and/or contentious cases. Increased delegation is one way of improving efficiency and performance and so improving customer satisfaction.

- 3.2 The changes agreed by Scottish Ministers are as follows :
- 3.2.1 The Chief Planning Officer shall have delegated powers to determine householder development planning applications, where not more than 20 representations or a petition have been received, provided other parts of the scheme of delegation do not apply;
 - 3.2.2 The Chief Planning Officer shall have delegated powers to determine local applications for refusal, where not more than 20 representations in support have been received, subject to certain provisos, including the issues raised;
 - 3.2.3 The Chief Planning Officer shall have delegated powers to determine planning applications, other than householder development, where a petition has been submitted properly headed with material planning considerations and it has not more than 20 signatures of objection in relation to recommendations for approval and not more than 20 signatures of support in relation to recommendations for refusal;
 - 3.2.4 The Chief Planning Officer's delegated powers will not apply if there are outstanding unresolved objections from statutory consultees, including community councils, in relation to applications recommended for approval. Where the community council supports an application and it is recommended for refusal, delegated powers shall not apply;
 - 3.2.5 Full delegated powers shall be given to the Chief Planning Officer to determine whether a change to a granted planning application is material or not; and
 - 3.2.6 The term non-statutory Council adopted policy shall be removed from the Scheme of Delegation.
- 3.3 The statutory scheme of delegation agreed by Scottish Ministers is set out in Appendix 1.
