

Item no 5.4

QUESTION NO 4

By Councillor Jim Campbell for answer by the Leader of the Council at a meeting of the Council on 30
May 2019

Question

The Leader may be aware of some disquiet in the development community regarding what they perceive as a lack of precision when contrasting advice given to them and subsequent commentary contained in reports or made in person to the Development Management Sub Committee.

If any such concern were evidenced through appeals to the Scottish Reporter, would the Leader agree that it would reflect poorly on the culture of the Planning Service?

Answer