Appendix 1: Dashboard September 2014 – February 2015

Edinburgh's children and young people enjoy their childhood and fulfil their potential

Director's notes:

Latest data shows that pupils' attendance at both primary and secondary improved again in 2013/14. The percentage of half days attended at primary school increased from 94.9% to 95.5% and at secondary increased from 92.5% to 93.0%, both at the highest level since 2008/09. Since 2010, the Scottish Government has published data on school attendance only once every two years. 2013/14 data will not be published nationally so comparisons with national data or other authorities is not possible. The national figure in 2012/13 for attendance at primary was 94.9% and at secondary was 91.9%.

Number of children who need to be looked after	1,425	1,427	1,435	1,432	1,427	1,419	1,454		Latest data show 1,419 children who need to be looked after in the city.
