Recent news	Background
At the Council meeting of 14 March, the EU Registration motion by Councillor McVey was approved, and requested that expenditure on provision of assistance by Registration Services to citizens making EU Settled Status applications be monitored and reported through the Business Bulletin of the Finance and Resources Committee. In March 2019 there were 139 applications of which 34 (25%) were from out with Edinburgh area. In the first two weeks of April there were 105 applications of which 40 (38%) were from out with Edinburgh. If a charge of £14 had been levied on the 74 applications from out with Edinburgh during March to 12 April 2019 this would have amounted to £1,036. Applications for assistance have been received from across the country including Aberdeen, Bathgate, Dundee, Fort William, Glasgow, Inverness, Kelso, Kilmarnock, Kirkcaldy, Oban and Newcastle.	Robbie Beattie, Senior Manager.
