5. Review of Effectiveness of Scrutiny of Governance, Risk and Best Value (GRBV) – Self-Evaluation and Lessons Learnt

This report provided a summary on the self-evaluation workshop undertaken by Governance, Risk and Best Value Committee (GRBV) members on 12 October 2021 to assess current political management arrangements, committee effectiveness and lessons learnt from the Council term.

Decision

- 1) To note the outputs from self-evaluation workshop undertaken by Governance, Risk and Best Value Committee members on 12 October 2021 to assess current political management arrangements, committee effectiveness and lessons learnt from this Council term.
- 2) To note the outputs from the self-evaluation workshop would be used to inform the design of political management arrangement proposals and support provided to elected members around the local government election 2022 and following council term.
- 3) To request an additional report to the Council in June 2022, presenting the findings of the GRBV Effectiveness Audit, requesting that they were taken into consideration when agreeing the new Political Management Arrangements following the election.

(Reference – report by the Executive Director of Corporate Services, submitted.)

6. Committee Decision Process and the Policy Register

Details were provided on the processes that surrounded committee reporting and highlighted some improvements. The report also covered the review of the Policy Management Framework, updating the committee on the actions taken in response to the audit.

Decision

- 1) To note the actions outlined to improve the committee decision process.
- 2) To note that any review of the political management arrangements for the Council would take into account the workload of committees and the subsequent impact on the quality of reporting.
- 3) To request that a review or internal audit (to be decided in March when the 2022/23 Internal Audit Annual Plan was considered to ensure capacity) was undertaken to ensure the recommendations at paragraph 4.18 of the report had been implemented and that the processes were working effectively.
- 4) To agree to produce a simple guide to the Council's governance arrangements, decision making and committee process, including integrated impact assessments, implementation of decisions, the policy register and the use of the webcast for reviewing committee discussions. The guide to be included in members' training and made available to members and officers on the Orb, with a link to it to be included in committee action sheets for information.
