Comment Reasons:

Comment:As a nearby neighbour, I use this street very often to access Blackford Hill. This street is very special architecturally, with a very special perspective when coming from Blackouts Hill. The proposed development will alter the perspective in a negative way. There is also a unity in the street, which would be badly damaged if this development was to go ahead. Preserving the special character of old buildings and surroundings that are in the view of the public is essential to keep the very unique character of the overall town of Edinburgh
