Planning Appeal Statement

Property: 16 Clermiston Grove, Edinburgh, EH4 7DE

Planning application reference: 22/05999/FULSTL

We are submitting an appeal in regards to the above-mentioned planning application which was refused by The City of Edinburgh Council on 6 April 2023 (appeal made within 3 months of decision date).

Background: An application for change of use was made on 05 December 2022 in order to comply with the 'Short Term Let Control Area', which requires all proprietors wishing to use their properties within Edinburgh City Centre as short term lets to have planning permission, if the property is classed as a secondary letting. The application was open to public comments until 03 January 2023 – there were no comments received during this period. The councils given determination date at the time of application was 03 February 2023 however this was not actually determined until 06 April 2023 – approximately 18 weeks.

The decision to refuse the change of use was in relation to the Local Development Plan Policy Hou 7 in respect of Inappropriate Uses in Residential Areas, the description of this policy as follows:

The intention of the policy is firstly, to preclude the introduction or intensification of non-residential uses incompatible with predominantly residential areas and secondly, to prevent any further deterioration in living conditions in more mixed-use areas which nevertheless have important residential functions. This policy will be used to assess proposals for the conversion of a house or flat to a House in Multiple Occupation (i.e. for five or more people). Further advice is set out in Council Guidance.

The property is located in Edinburgh's Clermiston suburb, which has good public transport links to the City Centre and Edinburgh Airport. The property is accessed via its own main door and is entirely self-contained - there are no common areas such as gardens or stairs where occupants could cause disturbance to neighbouring properties. This is a small scale one-bedroom property which limits the number of occupants to two (adults, excluding children under 10). The property has operated as a short term let since September 2019, to date there have been no issues/complaints arising from neighbouring residents. Prior to purchase the property had been on the market for some time; approximately 7-8 months, following the purchase there has been considerable investment to upgrade the property to ensure compliance with the current rental standards.

The property has provided short term accommodation for clients visiting and working within the city for the past 3 years, the merits of this accommodation are evident in the reviews received on various platforms; outlined in the planning statement. The property offers a good alternative to hotels, for those who are looking for a more home-from-home experience and prefer a bit more flexibility & space. There is a 2-night minimum booking policy which minimises the opportunities for anti-social behaviour (party bookings). The use of the property as a short term let inherently attracts visitors to the City which in turn helps to generate income for the local economy, and also provides additional employment for local trades/businesses in regards to maintenance and cleaning.

Whilst we understand the planner's assessment of the application in regards to the local development plan, we do not agree that the proposed use of this property as a short-term let is detracting any further from the immediate area. We therefore request for the Planning Local Review Body to reassess this decision by The City of Edinburgh Council planning department, in favour of this change of use application.

Should you require any further information regarding this appeal this can be provided on request.

Kind Regards

Steven Kinsey (Agent)

Christopher Gordon (Applicant)
