Comment Reasons:

Comment: I do not wish for this application to be approved.

Edinburgh already has an over priced and over subscribed rental market. Converting a long term let to a short term let only aggravates this problem.

Further more, it has been my experience that people staying in short term lets are often antisocial, causing noise and littering. The Abbey Hill area is a close knit community with the colony of artists at its centre. I feel that this property would be much better used to provide housing to someone who wants to live in the area and engage in the community rather than by a greedy landlord to extort profits from the community.

I hope you will consider my comments seriously and deny this application.

Sincerely,

Dr. Eli Sheppard

Comment Reasons:

Comment: I object to this proposal.

1). This proposal is contrary to the Scottish Government Housing policy on more homes - "everyone has a quality home that they can afford and that meets their needs"

2). This proposal is contrary to Scottish Planning Policy on "socially sustainable places" and "supporting delivery of accessible housing".

3). This proposal would have unacceptable impacts on neighbourhood amenity.

The Abbeyhill area is a thriving close-knit community, centred around the wonderful Colony of Artists. This community is what makes this area such a great place to live and this proposal would have a detrimental impact on that. Short term lets have significant impacts on neighbours including increased antisocial behaviour, noise, disruption, intrusion by a frequent turnover of strangers, loss of community, loss of security and impacts on bins and parking.

Edinburgh also has a housing crisis, particularly when it comes to accessible housing. This property would be better used to provide long-term housing for someone who actually wants to live in the area and engage with the community, rather than contributing to a ghost town of Airbnbs.

Please do not approve this application.

Comment: Our customers are between 30% and 50% tourists depending on the season. One of the only ways that tourists come to find Easter road is through Airbnb's. A thriving area needs balance and local air bnbs are relied upon in the Eater Road neighbourhood for local businesses.

Comment: I have known Scott Garcia and his wife since 2014, first as their yoga teacher, as their friend, as godmother to their son and as now as co-trustee with Scott for our yoga charity. I have always known him to be a responsible, thoughtful and caring person and have witnessed first-hand the care he takes in hosting guests in his home and properties over the last 7 years, providing a clean, safe and welcoming space and facilities for guests to enjoy some time away from their own homes. I have also seen how much care he takes in maintaining good relations with neighbours, keeping them informed with group communications and creating stair Whatsapp groups, being considerate of their peace and privacy and asking their guests to be considerate too, as well as helping to maintain cleanliness and good condition of common property areas for the benefit of all the residents.

Regards

Emma Nolan

Comment: I have known Scott Garcia as my direct next door neighbour in a block with 9 other flats. Scott and his wife are both absolutely wonderful neighbours. Scott regularly does repairs around the stairwell and communal garden, eg, changing bulbs, repairing the entry phone system and maintaining the garden. They are lovely people, offering any help needed to me and my family. Since renting out their apartment to Air BNB 5 years ago, I can honestly say there has never been an issue with their guests and I live directly next door sharing 2 walls so I would know. Further, they have always made it clear that if there are any issues, to contact them straight away and they would deal with it.

If I can be of any further help, please do not hesitate contact me

I have found him to be a reliable and responsible owner of the property. He set up our stair committee with another owner which has been invaluable in facilitating our ongoing building improvements. Comment: I am the applicant's sister and help him with the running of his short-term lets since he relocated with his family to Peebles a year and a half ago. I do not help with the day to day running but act as a local contact for guests if they have any problems during their stay. I live just 5 mins walk away from most of the properties. Having lived in many of the flats myself over the years I know the specifics of each property and can generally quickly help guests with any occasional problems they might have, either in person or over the phone if Scott is unavailable. Scott tries to be the best host he can be and does more than his share in the communal areas, changing broken lights and financing small repairs.

In the years that they have been renting their property out there's never been any problems with their guests but occasional general stair and building problems crop up where Scott is very quick at responding and helping out. Scott has given me his phone number in case of any issues. Both Scott and his partner Ellie are a delight to talk to while passing in the stair. They are always positive minded and enthusiastic about life.

In that time Scott has worked hard to restore and maintain flats that had seen better days - this includes improving communal areas to the benefit of everybody in the stair.

Scott and his partner actively encourage their guests to support local business.

Comment Reasons:

Comment: I helped Mr Garcia with property management at this short-term lets in Edinburgh. My company employs 22 people and calls in tradesmen, laundry services and other staff sub-contracted to deal with any specific maintenance issues if required. The loss of good Airbnb and short-term let hosts would put an end to a huge amount of economic activity in the area and would have a huge negative effect on my business and the businesses of the people I work with. We take great care to work harmoniously with the other residents in the stairs and discuss this with all staff. Staff are instructed to be polite to other residents, work as quietly as possible and to generally be respectful of the peaceful stair environment. Any material issues in the stair are reported back to the owner by the cleaners and generally addressed promptly and often at the owners expense. Our cleaners sweep up any litter found in the communal stairs when they visit. Under normal circumstances staff would generally only need to access properties 10 times per month to clean between guests. Access inside the properties is generally only between the 11am check-out and 4pm check-in times of guests. I find Mr Garcia to be a very conscientious and considerate owner who routinely puts care for residents before his own convenience.

Comment: The Mash Tun was here before Airbnb's and we can remember a huge uplift in custom post-Airbnb. Around 50% of our lunch time trade is from tourists who only get to this area because they stay in Airbnb's nearby. It's a worry what we'll do if it stops.

Comment: I was a direct downstairs neighbour of Scott's for 5 years while he ran his Airbnb from the property and in this time I have seen him be instrumental in much of the stair maintenance either repairing himself or often funding and managing the repairs personally. I find him to be a very personable, conscientious Airbnb host - ensuring there are never any issues that would effect his neighbours, whilst maintaining his position as a responsible property owner.

Comment: I moved to Edinburgh 11 years ago and met Scott Garcia shortly after. He is a perfectly decent and dependable individual and goes the extra mile for his tenants and has always helped with matters relating to the communal building including the installation of a full new security system last year which has greatly improved the stair environment. I am a trustee of the Saunders Streets residents association that takes care of matters concerning the block and I am more than happy to recommend him as a landlord and a host.

Best Wishes

Comment: I have worked with Scott Garcia and his wife as their co-host and cleaner for their short-term lets for over 5 years. I have always found Scott to be a pleasure to work with. I manage a cleaning team of up to 10 people and without work from Airbnb and short-term lets my business would probably close. My cleaning business is our principle source of income. I clean Scott's properties between guest stays. Any issues in the communal stairs are either addressed directly or reported to Scott and he manages the repairs personally. I instruct my staff to always be respectful of the stair environment and to be friendly to the people who live there. My cleaners try to be as quiet as possible when cleaning the flats and only work between 11am and 4pm to keep noise and disturbance to a minimum. We don't need to carry anything other than 1 bag of laundry to and from the property as vacuum and cleaning products stay permanently at the property. On average we would visit each property 10 times per month between guest stays as most stays are between 3 and 4 nights.

Comment: Having being a resident and now a landlord in the Abbeyhill area for over 6 years, I have to admit I'm very indebted to the support Scott has provided the flat stair committee. From small maintenance changes to helping start the stair committee resulting in countless improvements in full repaint, damp proofing and renovation of the stair. Scott has hosted Air bnb guests at his property for over 7 years but they have never been a problem to me or, I believe, anyone in the stair.
