29a, Raeburn Place, Edinburgh, EH4 1HU

Scale 1:1250

29A Raeburn Place, EH4 1HU

This is our townhouse outlined in red; the grey/beige gate which leads upstairs to our main front door.

We have one adjoining neighbour to the left and then we then have one 'neighbour' downstairs which is now the retailer Brunsfield Sports.

There is an alleyway to the right of our gate. Next to this is the alleyway of Medusa Hair which then leads to the access to our other residential nearby neighbour above the hairdresser.

As you can see, any activity from our house would cause minimal disturbances. We have our own gate, own door and we are tucked away. We have never received as much as one comment about noise throughout all of our holiday let bookings in the years we have been sharing our property.

In addition, in the context of applying for a Change of Use to a commercial premises, you can see we are already surrounded by commercial outlets. Raeburn Place is indeed a combination of both residential and commercial buildings.

Donna's Airbnb is my all time favorite! I would definitely go back and recommend to anyone wanting to visit Edinburgh. Great location, lots of restaurants and pubs, plenty of public transport and the bus stops right outside the door. Perfect in every way. Love love loved staying there

April 2023

The house was just beautiful and had everything we needed. Donna was great with communicating and checked several times to make sure everything was okay.

The place has been decorated tastefully and the beds were extremely comfortable. The bathroom was beautiful. It really is a great place to stay and in the lovely area of Stockbridge.

We only stayed for 1 night with 6 friends, however if we had been staying for longer, I think that only having 1 shower wouldn't have been enough for all us girls. However, this absolutely wouldn't deter us from staying again and it's an amazing house.

March 2023

Warm, comfortable & well located, Donna's apartment was a lovely and peaceful base for our daughter's graduation weekend. Spotlessly clean with beautifully fresh bedlinen & towels and snuggly beds, we also appreciated the generous supply of tea & coffee etc. The main living area has 3 stunning windows with wooden shutters looking out from the 1st floor over Raeburn Place & is light & airy as is the whole flat. We particularly loved the luxurious 'attic' rooms & bathroom. Thank-you!

May 2021

We stayed at Donna's beautiful home in the heart of Edinburgh, these pictures of the property look amazing but when you're actually there the house is so much more. It has been so beautifully decorated and it feels very homely. I can't recommend Donna enough as a host she always kept in contact with me, gave great local tips and was just very friendly and easy to book with! If you're around Edinburgh be sure to stay here you won't be disappointed. Although you are on the Main Street of Stockbridge there's no noise from outside at all it's very peaceful. For this reason it's the perfect location! Thank you again x

September 2019

My family of 8 had two very pleasant stays over in early September. We were really impressed with the styling, design, cleanliness and equipment in the house! They are as advertised.

The location is also very convenient. It's a stone throw away from eateries and convenience stores.

Most importantly is that the host has been extremely hospitable! The engagements prior and after the trip have been very responsive, genuine and personal.

Thanks Donna for the stays :)

This is a wonderful property that has been thoughtfully redone. Our family of seven was able to have a great holiday week with Donna's place as our base. Stockbridge is a great location, with interesting places to eat and drink in abundance, and a short walk up the hill to the center of the city. Highly recommended.

This apartment was the perfect location for my wedding weekend. Me and my bridesmaids enjoyed staying here and getting ready for the wedding, it was spacious, bright, airy and beautifully decorated. The photographer even commented on how beautiful the setting for getting ready was. We had everything we needed to have the best stay ever. Donna communicated so well with me before the stay and answered any questions I had. The location was perfect for our wedding and right in the heart of the beautiful Stockbridge with lots of amenities, cafes, restaurants and shops, with easy access to the hustle and bustle of the city centre. Donna's place is beautiful. The minute you walk through the door, you feel like you've arrived home. The kitchen is well stocked for preparing simple meals. The beds are super comfortable. The digital temperature adjusted shower is pure genius. Great place for coffee and breakfast two doors down and a nice wine bar across the street. Live like a local, stay in Stockbridge. This is the first time ever that I honestly do not want to write a review for fear that the next time I want to book this place, it will be fully booked. This place is amazing. May 2018

Donna was the ideal host — helpful, kind, and responsive— and we thorough enjoyed this lovingly restored, beautiful, two-story flat. The beds and pillows were wonderfully comfortable, and despite being on a slightly busy street, the flat was quiet and peaceful — much appreciated as we recovered from jet lag. We also loved the neighborhood. We would definitely stay there again should we be fortunate enough to visit Edinburgh again.

Donna's place is great, we came as a family of 7 with our kids and loved the perfect design and decor.

For having already come to Edinburgh, it is very well located not far from the points to visit, you can get around on foot without worry.

We were hosted very well, Donna was there for us, we were coming by car from the Highlands and we were able to enjoy the treats she left us. I highly recommend it!

WOW!! This place is a luxury Gem. Location is amazing right in the heart of one of the best areas in Edinburgh Stockbridge. There are so many lovely restaurants, cafes and bars on your doorstep. Also within walking distance or easy bus or taxi right outside to the city centre. The welcome pack was very appreciated and all the info provided on the local area, Edinburgh city centre and a little further afield really useful. The accommodation is to a very high standard with luxury in mind. The beds are extremely comfortable and we really felt at home during our stay. Donna was very quick to communicate with us and was always a pleasure to deal with. We will definitely return.

KEY POINTS:

- I worked hard to earn our superhost status and have upheld its criteria every year since.
- I have a rating of 4.98 out of 5 from 137 reviews, many from fellow Superhosts.
- We have had positive reviews from 2017 until 2023.
- We are credible and responsible hosts. We are selective of our guests and they are in turn respectful of our property and the neighbourhood.
- We actually have a passion for creating a positive experience for visitors. This is conveyed clearly by the lovely feedback I received as a host.
- We host a variety of guests from leisure to repeat business guests. Some include famous sporting personalities and also those who have important roles in many significant Edinburgh events.
- We have international visitors, domestic visitors and even host those from Edinburgh itself ie locals.
- There is a common theme from our guests noticing that the property is very well looked after and homely. That's because it is, it is our city home.
- Guests are often telling us how they have used the local eateries/businesses/attractions based on our recommendations. The staff from the establishments also tell us when customers have been in due to our referrals and often thank us.
- We pride ourselves in hosting families as believe it to be the perfect setting for them, as it is for our young family. This has been taken on board and is clear from many of the family reviews (that is young families, extended families and 3 generations staying together).
- We like to think of ourselves as not only credible hosts but respectful residents. We believe that our 'set up' allows for significant economical benefits from both guests and ourselves. This benefits the local and wider Edinburgh economy and more so than a long term tenant would.
