

QUESTION NO 11

By Councillor McFarlane for answer by the Convener of the Transport and Environment Committee at a meeting of the Council on 26 September 2024

The new parking rules became law on Monday 11 December 2023 and the enforcement started in Edinburgh in January 2024. Unfortunately, many vehicles are still parking on pavements, jeopardizing pedestrians' safety, especially disabled, wheelchair users, elderly, buggies and young children.

Can the Convener please clarify:

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| Question | (1) What is the average of reports the council receives per month with regards to pavement parking |
| Answer | (1) |
| Question | (2) How long it takes on average, since report is received until action is taken |
| Answer | (2) |
| Question | (3) If possible, a breakdown of infringements by vehicle type – i.e. private car, commercial van, taxi/PHC, etc' |
| Answer | (3) |
| Question | (4) How many council vehicles (or vehicles belonging to council contractors) have been issued with penalty notices for pavement parking |
| Answer | (4) |