

QUESTION NO 32

By Councillor Nicolson for answer
by the Chair of the Edinburgh
Integration Joint Board at a meeting of the Council on 30 June 2022

Question           (1) The Care homes at Ferrylee, Fords Road, Clovenstone and The Jewel remain open and still admitting additional residents as they can meet their needs. The current arrangements follow decisions in the last Council term. However, the consultation process on the future of these homes are still ongoing whilst new residents remain uncertain about their longer term future. What assurances can the Convener give on the future of these homes for the residents and their families?

Answer           (1)

Question           (2) What meeting has the Convenor had with Unions and other stakeholders on the future of these homes to ensure the EIJB takes the best decision for residents?

Answer           (2)

Question           (3) Can the Convenor outline when a decision will be reached on the future of these homes and provide a final timeline?

Answer           (3)