

QUESTION NO 24

By Councillor Mattos Coelho for answer by the Convener of the Transport and Environment
Committee at a meeting of the Council on 27 October 2022

Question

The Scottish Government Young persons' (under 22s) free bus travel scheme is being very welcomed by families across the city. 51,784 cards had been issued in the CEC area by July 2022, representing 65% of those eligible and is one of the highest out of the Scottish Local Authorities.

However, can the Transport and Environment Convener clarify what is the council doing to help families where English is not their first language, do not have access to a computer or have a library close by to apply for bus passes for their children?
