Description of Proposal

Please provide a description of your proposal to which your review relates. The description should be the same as given in the application form, or as amended with the agreement of the planning authority: *
(Max 500 characters)

Change of use from a residence to a Short Term Let.

Type of Application

What type of application did you submit to the planning authority? *

- Application for planning permission (including householder application but excluding application to work minerals).
- Application for planning permission in principle.
- Further application.
- Application for approval of matters specified in conditions.

What does your review relate to? *

- Refusal Notice.
- Grant of permission with Conditions imposed.
- No decision reached within the prescribed period (two months after validation date or any agreed extension) – deemed refusal.

Statement of reasons for seeking review

You must state in full, why you are seeking a review of the planning authority's decision (or failure to make a decision). Your statement must set out all matters you consider require to be taken into account in determining your review. If necessary this can be provided as a separate document in the 'Supporting Documents' section: * (Max 500 characters)

Note: you are unlikely to have a further opportunity to add to your statement of appeal at a later date, so it is essential that you produce all of the information you want the decision-maker to take into account.

You should not however raise any new matter which was not before the planning authority at the time it decided your application (or at the time expiry of the period of determination), unless you can demonstrate that the new matter could not have been raised before that time or that it not being raised before that time is a consequence of exceptional circumstances.

I currently work in Germany and will do for another two years (at most). Now after the peak of the pandemic, I'm visiting Scotland more frequently, 3-4 times a year, to spend time with my parents. Using the Ashley Terrace flat as an STL means I'm able to spend these periods in my home rather than rent a hotel room (my parents' house being too small to stay in). I've been using the flat as an STL to cover the costs of the property and to ensure it is looked after while I am away.

Have you raised any matters which were not before the appointed officer at the time the Determination on your application was made? *

Yes No

If yes, you should explain in the box below, why you are raising the new matter, why it was not raised with the appointed officer before your application was determined and why you consider it should be considered in your review: * (Max 500 characters)

I never thought to raise this point in a planning application. The e-planning forms promote a very functional approach to applications (e.g. 500 char max boxes? Why?) and not an approach to reason, as one might in a simple letter.

Please provide a list of all supporting documents, materials and evidence which you wish to submit with your notice of review and intend to rely on in support of your review. You can attach these documents electronically later in the process: * (Max 500 characters)

A letter summarising the appeal (as the 500 char limit appeal box is too small)

Application Details

Please provide the application reference no. given to you by your planning authority for your previous application.

What date was the application submitted to the planning authority? *

What date was the decision issued by the planning authority? *

Review Procedure

The Local Review Body will decide on the procedure to be used to determine your review and may at any time during the review process require that further information or representations be made to enable them to determine the review. Further information may be required by one or a combination of procedures, such as: written submissions; the holding of one or more hearing sessions and/or inspecting the land which is the subject of the review case.

Can this review continue to a conclusion, in your opinion, based on a review of the relevant information provided by yourself and other parties only, without any further procedures? For example, written submission, hearing session, site inspection. *

Yes No

In the event that the Local Review Body appointed to consider your application decides to inspect the site, in your opinion:

Can the site be clearly seen from a road or public land? *

Yes No

Is it possible for the site to be accessed safely and without barriers to entry? *

Yes No

Yes No N/A

Have you provided a statement setting out your reasons for requiring a review and by what procedure (or combination of procedures) you wish the review to be conducted? *

Yes No

You may not have a further opportunity to add to your statement of review at a later date. It is therefore essential that you submit with your notice of review, all necessary information and evidence that you rely on and wish the Local Review Body to consider as part of your review.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to appeal the recent refusal of my planning permission request (Appln: 22/02720/FUL) to continue using my flat at 55/3 Ashley Terrace as a short-term let.

I currently work in Germany and will do for another two years (at most). Now after the peak of the pandemic, I'm visiting Scotland more frequently, 3-4 times a year, to spend time with my parents. Using the Ashley Terrace flat as an STL means I'm able to spend these periods in my home rather than rent a hotel room (my parents' house being too small to stay in). I've been using the flat as an STL to cover the costs of the property and to ensure it is looked after while I am away.

I understand concerns about the impact of STLs in more suburban parts of the city. I do think though that some should be allowed as not every visitor to Edinburgh wants to stay in the city centre. With easy access to the park, canal and by car, the surrounding countryside, my flat appeals to visiting families. City centre flats are unlikely to hold as much appeal, especially to those with young children. It'd be a shame to restrict STL flats to city centre locations only.

Yours Sincerely,

Richard Baxter
