Description of Proposal

Please provide a description of your proposal to which your review relates. The description should be the same as given in the application form, or as amended with the agreement of the planning authority: *
(Max 500 characters)

To create a driveway in the side garden adjacent to the property to facilitate off street parking and charging of an electric vehicle. The car cannot be parked on the street for charging as there are double yellow lines around the entire perimeter of the garden.

Type of Application

What type of application did you submit to the planning authority? *

- Application for planning permission (including householder application but excluding application to work minerals).
- Application for planning permission in principle.
- Further application.
- Application for approval of matters specified in conditions.

What does your review relate to? *

- Refusal Notice.
- Grant of permission with Conditions imposed.
- No decision reached within the prescribed period (two months after validation date or any agreed extension) – deemed refusal.

Statement of reasons for seeking review

You must state in full, why you are seeking a review of the planning authority's decision (or failure to make a decision). Your statement must set out all matters you consider require to be taken into account in determining your review. If necessary this can be provided as a separate document in the 'Supporting Documents' section: * (Max 500 characters)

Note: you are unlikely to have a further opportunity to add to your statement of appeal at a later date, so it is essential that you produce all of the information you want the decision-maker to take into account.

You should not however raise any new matter which was not before the planning authority at the time it decided your application (or at the time expiry of the period of determination), unless you can demonstrate that the new matter could not have been raised before that time or that it not being raised before that time is a consequence of exceptional circumstances.

See separate document

Have you raised any matters which were not before the appointed officer at the time the Determination on your application was made? *

Yes No

If yes, you should explain in the box below, why you are raising the new matter, why it was not raised with the appointed officer before your application was determined and why you consider it should be considered in your review: * (Max 500 characters)

Please provide a list of all supporting documents, materials and evidence which you wish to submit with your notice of review and intend to rely on in support of your review. You can attach these documents electronically later in the process: * (Max 500 characters)

Review Procedure

The Local Review Body will decide on the procedure to be used to determine your review and may at any time during the review process require that further information or representations be made to enable them to determine the review. Further information may be required by one or a combination of procedures, such as: written submissions; the holding of one or more hearing sessions and/or inspecting the land which is the subject of the review case.

Can this review continue to a conclusion, in your opinion, based on a review of the relevant information provided by yourself and other parties only, without any further procedures? For example, written submission, hearing session, site inspection. *

Yes No

In the event that the Local Review Body appointed to consider your application decides to inspect the site, in your opinion:

Can the site be clearly seen from a road or public land? *

Yes No

Is it possible for the site to be accessed safely and without barriers to entry? *

Yes No

Checklist – Application for Notice of Review

Please complete the following checklist to make sure you have provided all the necessary information in support of your appeal. Failure to submit all this information may result in your appeal being deemed invalid.

Have you provided the name and address of the applicant?. *

Yes No

Have you provided the date and reference number of the application which is the subject of this review? *

Yes No

If you are the agent, acting on behalf of the applicant, have you provided details of your name and address and indicated whether any notice or correspondence required in connection with the review should be sent to you or the applicant? *

Yes No N/A

Have you provided a statement setting out your reasons for requiring a review and by what procedure (or combination of procedures) you wish the review to be conducted? *

Yes No

Note: You must state, in full, why you are seeking a review on your application. Your statement must set out all matters you consider require to be taken into account in determining your review. You may not have a further opportunity to add to your statement of review at a later date. It is therefore essential that you submit with your notice of review, all necessary information and evidence that you rely on and wish the Local Review Body to consider as part of your review.

Please attach a copy of all documents, material and evidence which you intend to rely on (e.g. plans and Drawings) which are now the subject of this review *

Yes No

Note: Where the review relates to a further application e.g. renewal of planning permission or modification, variation or removal of a planning condition or where it relates to an application for approval of matters specified in conditions, it is advisable to provide the application reference number, approved plans and decision notice (if any) from the earlier consent.

Declare – Notice of Review

I/We the applicant/agent certify that this is an application for review on the grounds stated.

Declaration Name: Mr Douglas Seath

Declaration Date: 16/04/2024

Statement of Reasons for Seeking Review

1. Design requirements

The measurement of the entrance to the driveway was omitted in error my submitted drawings. The entrance is no wider than 3 metres as required in the guidance. Also, the position of the driveway at a so-called junction is inaccurate. The opening opposite the driveway is in fact another driveway to a garage (photo 1). It is used very infrequently by one resident. Meggetland Terrace is really a crescent shape starting and finishing on Colinton Road. It leads nowhere else so only other residents and occasional service and delivery vehicles use it. On average roughly 1 or 2 vehicles per hour go past.

2. Risk to pedestrians and other vehicles

The driveway is situated at one of the bends in the road. There is no obstruction to viewing pedestrians or vehicles (which are slowing down to negotiate the bend) and vehicles cannot travel at speed due to the short distances involved. The garden perimeter wall is less than 1 metre high and the double yellow lines around the entire property means there are no parked cars in the way (photos 2 and 3). Other driveways in the street emerge between 2-metre-high walls and between rows of parked cars apparently without risk to others having been identified (photos 4 and 5). I have no knowledge of any accident having occurred in spite of this. Further, a driveway has been authorised on the bend at the other end of the Terrace (photo 6). This seems discriminatory.

3. The driveway is out of keeping with the character of the area

There are 24 driveways in the Terrace of similar size, shape and design. Many emerge between parked residents' cars with a greater obstruction to their view and risk to others. I do not see how this driveway is substantially out of character.

4. Objection by relative of neighbour

It is stated that the driveway would obstruct the ability of visitors to park adjacent to the resident's house. As there are double yellow lines on both sides of the Terrace at her property, there is no legal place to park adjacent to the house at this point. Additionally, the resident, who has no car, already has a driveway any visitor can use.
